

Amicable Debt Collections

- Collecting outstanding debt in the B2B market segment can be a challenge, especially at international level.
- Companies put a lot of effort in dealing with different time zones, communicating in local languages, understanding the local customs and ethics.
- Maintaining your company image and the relationship with your client is important, but can be a challenging factor in the late stages of invoice resolution.

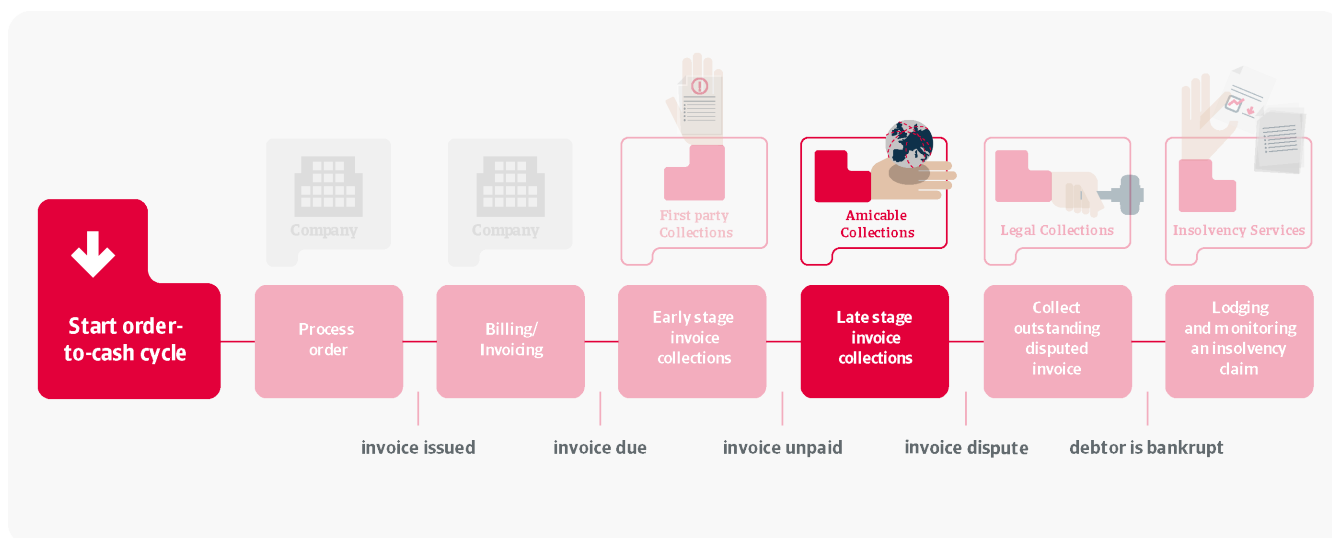

The Amicable Debt Collection service enables you to outsource the collection activities when the invoices are overdue. Atradius Collections operates on both a local and international scale and delivers a fast and effective solution for the challenges of your debt collection. Our professional collection team understands the valuable relationship between you and your client therefore ensuring continuity of your business relations.
